CHAPTER—I

GENERAL REVIEW

1.1.1. The numerical strength of the Indian Press increased to 19,144 in 1981 from 18,140 in 1980 indicating an annual growth of 5.5 per cent. In the case of circulation, the Indian Press advanced to 51,102,000 copies in 1981 from 50,921,000 copies in 1980, a modest increase of 0.4 per cent.

1.1.2. The year 1981 saw the number of newspapers crossing the nineteen thousand mark.

Daily Newspapers

1.2.1. There were 1,264 daily newspapers in 1981 as against 1173 in the previous year. During 1980, number of dailies had increased by 7.8 per cent.

1.2.2. Likewise, the circulation of dailies improved by 5.0 per cent in 1981 as compared to the circulation in 1980 and touched the figure of 15,255,000 copies.

1.2.3. Akin to dailies in dissemination and collection of news, newspapers which appeared twice a week numbered 98 in 1981. The total circulation of tri/bi-weeklies was 142,000.

Periodicals

1.3.1. There were 17,782 periodicals in India in 1981. Of them, 6,729 were monthlies, 5,624 weeklies, 2,555 fortnightlies, 1,859 quarterlies and 230 annuals. The remaining 785 were bi-monthlies, half-yearlies etc.

1.3.2. The total circulation of the periodicals in 1981 was 35,705,000 copies. Unlike in the case of number, weeklies led in circulation with a share of 42.9 per cent, closely followed by monthly journals with 39.4 per cent.

1.3.3. A salient feature of the Indian Press was that the share of periodicals in number was 92.9 per cent as compared to 69.9 per cent in circulation.

Languages

1.4.1. Newspapers were published in the country in 84 languages in 1981. These included 16 principal languages and 68 other languages. Largest number of newspapers were brought out in Hindi (5,329) followed by English (3,583), Bengali (1,463), Urdu (1,299) and Marathi, (1,098).

1.4.2. As in number, Hindi Press had the largest share in circulation also with 13,984,000 copies, followed by English with 11,039,000 copies. Press in the other languages had a circulation of less than ten million copies.

1.4.3. Daily newspapers were published in fifteen principal and seven other languages. Kashmiri was the one principal language that did not have a daily newspaper. Out of 1,264 dailies, 407 were published in Hindi, 128 in Urdu, 120 in Marathi, 105 in English and 101 in Malayalam. During 1981 Malayalam became the fifth language to have more than one hundred daily newspapers. In circulation also, Hindi dailies were at the top with 3,684,000 copies followed by English with 3,355,000 copies.

State Press

1.5.1. Arunachal Pradesh and Lakshadweep remained out of the list of publishers in 1981 also Uttar Pradesh continued to be publisher of largest number of newspapers (2,325), followed by Maharashtra (2,300), Delhi (2,325), West Bengal (2,115), Tamil Nadu (1,216), Andhra Pradesh (1,065) and Kerala (1,005). During 1981, Kerala became the seventh state to cross the landmark of one thousand newspapers.

1.5.2. With a total circulation of 8,651,000 copies, it was again Maharashtra Press which claimed the first position. Press in Delhi came second with 7,290,000 copies. Tamil Nadu Press occupied the third position. Uttar Pradesh Press took the fourth and West Bengal the fifth position.

1.5.3. In the matter of publishing dailies also, Uttar Pradesh was at the top with 178 newspapers followed by Maharashtra (166), Karnataka (105), Tamil Nadu (104) and Madhya Pradesh (102). In 1981, Tamil Nadu and Madhya Pradesh became the fourth and fifth state to have more than one hundred dailies. Nagaland, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Pondicherry, did not have even a single daily. In circulation, Maharashtra dailies maintained their lead with 2,384,000 copies. More than one million copies were also published by the dailies belonging to West Bengal : 1,741,000 copies, Tamil Nadu : 1,499,000 copies, Kerala : 1,464,000 copies, Delhi : 1,378,000 copies, Uttar Pradesh : 1,277,000 copies and Gujarat : 1,065,000 copies. Dailies of Gujarat crossed the one million circulation in 1981.

1.5.4. Tamil Nadu and Delhi published newspapers in fourteen principal languages. Maharashtra (13), West Bengal (12) also had newspapers in more than ten languages. Andhra Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh had newspapers in ten principal languages.

Circulation Pattern

1.6.1. According to the circulation data furnished by the newspapers, there were 177 big, 354 medium and 6,525 small newspapers. The remaining 12,088 could not be classified as their circulation figures were not available. The big ones had the largest share in the total of the Indian Press with 21,300,000 copies. The medium accounted for 9,712,000 copies and the small 20,090,000 copies. In terms of percentage, their share came to 41.7, 19.0 and 39.3 respectively.

1.6.2. Among the daily newspapers, 66 were big, 125 medium and 586 small. In the total circulation of the daily press, the share of these three categories worked out to 53.5, 21.7 and 24.8 per cent.

1.6.3. Lightyone newspapers, including 32 dailies, had a circulation of one lakh or more.

Circulation Levels

1.7.1. Ananda Bazar Patrika, a Bengali daily from Calcutta retained the top position of being the largest circulated single edition daily in 1981 with a circulation of 416,514 copies. The second position was also claimed by a Bengali daily of Calcutta entitled Jugantar with a circulation of 314,618 copies.

1.7.2. Published in English from Bombay, Delhi and Ahmedabad, Times of India occupied the first position among multi-edition dailies with a circulation of 522,900 copies. Malayala Manorama published from Calicut, Cochin and Kottayam had the second largest circulation of 526,014 copies. Indian Express also in English from the ten different centres claimed the third position with a circulation of 455,992 copies.

1.7.3. Malayala Manorama, a Malayalam weekly from Kottayam had the largest circulation among periodicals with 565,591 copies. Kumudam a Tamil weekly from Madras came next with a circulation of 560,646 copies.

Ownership

1.8.1. Out of 19,144 newspapers, as many as 12,521 were owned by individuals and 3,240 by societies and associations. Firms and partnerships owned 956, joint stock companies 782 and 597 by Central and State Governments.

1.8.2. However, newspapers brought out by joint stock companies had the largest circulation with 19,612,000 copies, followed by those published by individuals with 18,519 copies.

Contents

1.9.1. Apart from dailies and tri/bi-weeklies, there were 6,824 periodicals which dealt with news and current affairs. The number of literary and cultural magazines was 2,718 and that of journals on religion and philosophy 1,586.

1.9.2. News and Current affairs journals had a circulation of 10,793,000 copies. Literary and Cultural magazines claimed 8,865,000 copies.

Miscellaneous Publications

1.10.1. In addition to the general news-interest newspapers and specialised journals, there were 2,845 publications which could not be termed as 'newspaper', inspite of the fact that they have a definite periodicity. These publications have, therefore, been not included in the general study of the press. Instead, a separate study about such publications, viz. market reports/bulletins, publicity/house journals, fiction, school/college magazines etc. has been made.

Foreign Mission Publications

1.11.1. One hundred publications were brought out by the 26 foreign missions stationed in India. All these publications were published from the four metropolitan cities. Embassy of USSR with 49 publications remained the largest publisher.

Newsprint

1.12.1. Allocation of newsprint was made to 1,753 newspapers and periodical in 1981-82 as compared to 1,756 in 1980-81. The total allotment made during these years was 371,618 and 369,484 tonnes respectively.

Verification of circulation claims

1.13.1. The Press Registrar started the circulation checks in 1960 as a measure to stop inflated circulation claims by newspapers. Since then such checks have become a regular feature.

1.14.2. In 1981, the total number of newspaper taken up for checks was 500 in 40 centres spread over to several states and union territories. Besides, cases of 226 newspapers pending from previous year were also finalised.

CHAPTER II

NUMBER OF NEWSPAPERS

2.1.1 The numerical strength of the Press in India maintained a steady growth in 1981. On December 31, 1981, the number of newspapers and periodicals was 19,144 as against 18,100 at the end of 1980, showing an increase of 5.5 percent. Of them, 1,264 dailies, tri/bi-weeklies, 5,624 weeklies 1981, and 10,158 other periodicals.

2.1.2. During 1981, as many as 931 newspapers and periodicals commenced publication. In addition to this, 141 papers which had started earlier but came to notice only during 1981 were also taken on records. Similarly, the number of newspapers that went out of Publication during 1981 was 56. Apart from removing them, 10 papers which had ceased earlier but came to notice in 1981 were also deleted from the records of the Press Registrar.

2.1.3. Significant feature of the Indian press was that the newspapers and periodicals were being published by almost all States and union territories and in as many as 82 languages—(including foreign languages, all the principal languages of the country and local dialects). The language panorama of the Indian Press presented a unique spectacle; unparalleled anywhere in the world except in U.S.S.R.

2.1.4. Arunachal Pradesh and Lakshdweep remained out of the list of newspaper publishers in 1981 also. As for Sikkim, while it was known that newspapers and periodicals were in publication from the state, efforts were still on to gather statistical data about them.

2.1.5 The pattern of growth of the press during 1971-1981 is given in Table 2.1. During a span of 22 years the number of newspapers had increased every year with 1965, 1972 and 1974 as the three exceptions, when the number declined.

New Newspapers

2.2.1. Among the 631 new newspapers that born during the year under review, 65 were dailies, four tri/bi-weeklies, 349 weeklies, 162 fortnightlies, 264 monthlies, 73 quarterlies, 11 annuals and 12 other periodicals such as bi-monthlies, half-yearlies etc.

2.2.2. Languagewise, new newspapers were brought out in all the principal languages excepting Kashmiri and Sindhi. More than one third of the new newspapers appeared in Hindi (367). Newspapers in English totalled 134. Bengali, Urdu and Marathi also made a significant contribution with a tally of 78. 63 and 5 respectively. There were 64 bilinguals that started publication during 1981. Details are shown in Table 2.2.

2.2.3. In addition to the new newspapers, 141 newspapers were also brought on the records. These newspapers were in existence before 1981, but came to be known only during the year. Among them, 16 were dailies, 37 weeklies, 23 fortnightlies, 54 monthlies, six quarterlies and five other periodicals. Languagewise, break-up of newspapers that were added during 1981 is shown in Table 2.3.

Cessations

2.3.1 Of the 56 newspapers that ceased publication in 1981, three were dailies, one bi-weekly, 18

weeklies, nine fortnightlies, 15 monthlies, five quarterlies and four other periodicals. Language-wise break-up is shown in Table 2.4.

2.3.2. Apart from the 56 newspapers that went out of publication in 1981, ten more newspapers that had ceased before 1981 were also removed from the record. Language and periodicitywise details of the newspapers deleted in 1981 is given in Table 2.5.

Mortality

2.4.1. Out of the 66 newspapers removed from the record, three went out of publication even without completing one year. One third of the newspapers were in the age-group of 1-3 years at the time of cessation. Twentysix were aged between 4-10 years and ten between 11-25 years at the time of their closure (Table 2.6). Five newspapers ceased after remaining in publication for more than 25 years including Mail, an English daily of Madras which remained in publication for more than one hundred years. These five papers were :

	Year of establishment
1. Mail —English daily, Madras.	(1867)
2. Azad —Urdu daily, Varanasi	(1948)
3. Pratap —Gujarati weekly, Surat	(1926)
4. Swatantra Shikshak —Gujarati monthly, Rajkot	(1949)
5. F.R.I. News —English quarterly, Dhanbad	(1951)

Language-wise

2.5.1. In addition to the sixteen principal languages of the country, newspapers were brought out in 16 other languages, mostly Indian languages or dialects and a few foreign languages.

2.5.2. Hindi continued to be at top with 5,329, followed by English with 3,553. More than one thousand newspapers were also published in Bengali (1,461), Urdu (1,299) and Marathi (1,098). In addition to these five languages, Tamil (1,041), Malayalam (766), Gujarati (696), Kannada (611) and Telugu (546) too had more than five hundred newspapers. While the number of newspapers in Kashmiri and Sindhi remained unchanged, the remaining principal languages improved their strength as compared to 1980. During 1981, Hindi had the distinction of crossing the milestone of 5,000 newspapers.

2.5.3. Apart from the newspapers published in the principal languages, there were 267 newspapers in 50 other languages. Among them, Lushai (Mizo) had 46, Gorkhali (Nepali) 40, Khasi 22, Konkani and Manipuri 21 each and Maithili 10 newspapers. The remaining other languages had less than ten newspapers.

2.5.4. In addition to the unilingual newspapers, bilinguals and multilingual also contributed a significant section of the Indian press. Of the 1,506 bilinguals, English appeared in 1,154 newspapers, Hindi in 785, Marathi in 147, Urdu and Bengali in 13 each, Malayalam in 121, Tamil in 113 and Telugu in 105. In the matter of multilinguals, English appeared in 341 and Hindi in 371 newspapers. Besides, the bilinguals and multilinguals published in the principal languages, 41 other languages not included in the English Schedule of the Constitution and English also appeared in 158 bilinguals and multilinguals. Details are given in the chapter on Language-wise Study of the Press.

2.5.5. Daily newspapers were brought in all the principal languages excepting Kashmiri. Hindi with 409 dailies continued to remain at the top, followed by Urdu (128), Marathi (120), English (105) and Malayalam (101). During 1981, Malayalam became the fifth language to have more than one hundred newspapers. Tamil with 99 dailies was approaching fast the three figures mark.

2.5.6. Of the 5,624 weeklies, 2,432 were brought out in Hindi. There were 637 weeklies in Urdu and 407 in English. Out of 2,155 fortnightlies, 851 were in Hindi. Among monthlies English came first with 1,477 periodicals, followed by Hindi with 1,298. Language and periodicitywise details are given in Table 2.7.

Press in the States and Union Territories

2.6.1. With 2,702 newspapers and periodicals in 1981, Uttar Pradesh continued to remain the largest publisher State, followed by Maharashtra (2,560), Delhi (2,325) and West Bengal 2,115. The other States to have more than one thousand newspapers were : Tamil Nadu (1,216), Andhra Pradesh (1,068), Rajasthan (1,031) and Kerala (1,005), Karnataka (943), Madhya Pradesh (691), Gujarat (652) Bihar (614) and Punjab (600) had more than five hundred newspapers. One of the salient features of the Indian Press during 1981 was that Rajasthan and Kerala joined the family of states with more than one thousand newspapers.

2.6.2. Uttar Pradesh (173) was also the largest publisher of the daily newspapers. It was followed by Maharashtra (166), Karnataka (105), Tamil Nadu (104), Kerala (103) and Madhya Pradesh (102). Three states, namely, Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Madhya Pradesh crossed the three figure mark during 1981. Nagaland, Dadra & Nagar Haveli and Pondicherry have yet to see the birth of a daily newspapers.

2.6.3. Maharashtra (25) and Uttar Pradesh were the only two states to have more than ten tri/bi-weeklies.

2.6.4. The largest number of weeklies belonged to Uttar Pradesh (1,342). Other states and Union territories had less than one thousand weeklies. West Bengal (313), Uttar Pradesh (295), Delhi (290), Rajasthan (268), Maharashtra (226), were the prominent publishers of fortnightly journals. In the case of monthlies, largest number belonged to Delhi (1,101), followed by Maharashtra (942). West Bengal (712), Uttar Pradesh (666), Tamil Nadu (650) and Kerala (549). In respect of quarterlies, West Bengal (397), Delhi (390), Maharashtra (380) and Uttar Pradesh (132) were the leading publishers. Maharashtra (113) was the only state to have more than one hundred annuals. State and periodicitywise break-up of number of newspapers and periodicals is given in Table 2.8.

2.6.5. Tamil Nadu and Delhi had the distinction of publishing newspapers in fourteen out of sixteen principal languages. Maharashtra (13) and West Bengal (12) also had newspapers in more than ten principal languages. Andhra Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh were the publishers of newspapers in ten principal languages.

2.6.6. Another interesting feature of the Indian press was that more than one thousand newspapers in a single language were published from Uttar Pradesh (1,967), West Bengal (1,335), Maharashtra (1,064) and Delhi (1,019) in Hindi, Bengali, Marathi and English respectively. Delhi achieved this distinction only during 1981.

2.6.7. English newspaper appeared from all the states and Union territories. Excepting Manipur, Meghalaya, Nagaland, Tripura, Dadra & Nagar Haveli, Goa Daman & Diu and Mizoram all other states and union territories had newspapers in all the principal languages. Urdu and Sanskrit were the other two most popular languages in terms of the number of states and union territories having newspapers in a language.

Concentration of Newspapers

2.7.1. To study the concentration of newspapers, the centres of publications have been classified into five groups :

- (i) Metropolitan Cities (Delhi, Calcutta, Madras and Bombay).
- (ii) State Capitals (excluding headquarters of union territories).
- (iii) Union territories other than Delhi.
- (iv) Bigger cities (other cities with a population of more than one lakh as per census 1971).
- (v) Smaller Towns (remaining places having population of below one lakh as per census 1971).

2.7.2. Out of 19,144 newspapers in the country as many as 5,767 newspapers (30.1 per cent) were published from the four metropolitan cities. The state capitals had a share of 3,003 newspapers (15.7 per cent). The other bigger cities accounted for 5,662 newspapers (29.6 per cent). As good as, 4,385 (22.9 per cent) belonged to smaller towns. The remaining 327 were brought out from the union territories excepting Delhi.

2.7.3. As for dailies, 209 were located in the metropolitan cities, 242 in the state capitals, 40 in the union territories excepting Delhi, 523 in the other bigger cities and 250 in the smaller towns (Table 2.9).

2.7.4. Language-wise, 62.4 per cent of the English newspapers were concentrated in the four metropolitan cities. As many as 36.1 per cent of the Hindi newspapers were published from the bigger cities other than metropolitan cities and the state capitals and 32.7 per cent belonged to small towns. Details about the concentration of newspapers in each language is shown in Table 2.10.

2.8.1. Thirty major cities of India, which had more than one hundred newspapers each in 1981, accounted for 58.0 per cent of the total newspapers in the country. CHAPTER III

CIRCULATION OF NEWSPAPERS

3.1.1 The Press in India commanded a total circulation of 51,102,000 copies in 1981 as compared to 50,921,000 copies in 1980, indicating an increase of 0.4 per cent. The pattern of growth in circulation during 1971-1981 is shown in Table 3.1.

3.1.2. In 1981, while the circulation of daily newspapers increased by 5.0 per cent, there was a decline of 1.2 per cent in the case of periodicals. The tri/bi-weeklies also suffered in circulation.

Daily Newspapers

3.2.1. The circulation of daily newspapers was 15,255,000 copies in 1981 as compared to 14,531,000 copies in 1980. The annual growth rate of 5.0 achieved by the dailies was higher than that of the overall growth rate recorded by the entire Indian Press.

3.2.2. Among the publishers of daily newspapers, Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Gujarat, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Orissa, Punjab, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Tripura, Uttar Pradesh, West Bengal and Andaman & Nicobar Islands improved their circulation. The daily press in Madhya Pradesh and Meghalaya, maintained the circulation attained in 1980, the remaining states and union territories witnessed declining trends in circulation.

3.2.3. Language-wise, dailies published in Hindi, English, Bengali, Gujarati, Kanada, Marathi, Oriya and Urdu improved their circulation.

3.2.4. The circulation of tri/bi-weeklies went down to 142,000 in 1981 from 246,000 in 1980.

Periodicals

3.3.1. Among periodicals, weeklies had a share of 15,320,000 copies (42.9 per cent); fortnightly 4,627,000 copies (13.0 per cent) and 14,061,000 copies monthly (39.4 per cent).

3.3.2 As compared to 1980, the circulation of journals in all the periodicities decreased in 1981, excepting weeklies. Details are shown in Table 3.1.

Press in the Languages

3.4.1. As in 1980, Hindi Press had the largest share in circulation with 13,984,000 copies (27.4 per cent), followed by English with 11,039,000 copies (21.6 per cent), Newspapers published in Tamil (4,502,000), Malayalam (4,127,000), Bengali (3,299,000), Marathi (2,883,000), Gujarati (2,540,000), Urdu (2,254,000), Gujarati (1,888,000), Telugu (1,556,000) and Punjabi (1,028,000) also had more than one million circulation.

3.4.2. Among dailies also, Hindi newspapers had the largest share in circulation with 36,84,000 copies in 1980. English dailies claimed the second position with a circulation of 3,355,000 copies. Percentagewise, their share worked out to 24.2 and 21.2 respectively in the total circulation of the daily press. Dailies in Marathi (1,399,000), Malayalam (1,386,000), Gujarati (1,145,000) and Bengali (1,059,000) also had more than one million circulation.

3.4.3. In the case of periodicals also, Hindi Press led the field. In the categories of weekly, fortnightly and monthly, Hindi periodicals claimed the first position with 4,672,000; 1,633,000 and 3,855,000 copies respectively. Tamil came second in weeklies with 2,050,000 copies. As regards fortnightly and monthlies, English periodicals took the second position with 1,388,000 and 3,473,000 copies respectively. Among quarterlies, English Press was at the top with 554,000 copies. Similarly, in annuals, English journals were ahead of the periodicals in other categories.

3.4.4. Noteworthy feature of the press in the languages in 1981 was that the daily newspapers in Bengali crossed the one million mark in circulation.

State Press

3.5.1. The Maharashtra Press maintained to lead over the entire press in India in circulation in 1981 also with 8,651,000 copies, even though it lost in circulation as compared to the previous year. Next came Delhi newspapers with 7,290,000 copies. Tamil Nadu Press with 6,547,000 copies stood third.

3.5.2. In the case of dailies also, Maharashtra again took the first position with 2,384,000 copies followed by West Bengal and Tamil Nadu with 1,741,000 and 1,499,000 copies respectively. Details are shown in Table 3.3.

Distribution Pattern

3.6.1. Of the 51,102,000 copies of newspapers in circulation per publishing day in 1981, as many as 45,697,000 copies (89.4 per cent) were sold. The remaining 5,405,000 copies (10.6 per cent) were distributed free, which included samples and voucher copies.

3.6.2. As for daily newspapers, number of copies sold was 14,649,000 out of a total of 15,255,000 i.e. 96.0 per cent. Language and periodicitywise break-up of circulation of newspapers is given in Table 3.4.

Circulation Pattern

3.7.1. There were 7,056 newspapers which supplied the circulation data for 1980. They have been classified into the following three categories :

- | | |
|---|----------|
| (a) Newspapers with a circulation of more than 50,000 copies | (Big) |
| (b) Newspapers with a circulation between 15,001 to 50,000 copies | (Medium) |
| (c) Newspapers with a circulation up to 15,000 copies | (Small) |

3.7.2. Out of 7,056, only 177 came in the category of big newspapers, 358 in medium and 6,525 in small. However, the big ones had the largest share in the total circulation of the Indian Press with 21,300,000 copies. Medium accounted for 9,712,000 copies and the remaining 20,090,000 copies belonged to small newspapers. In terms of percentage, their share worked out to 41.7, 19.0 and 39.3 per cent respectively.

3.7.3. Big newspapers have been further classified into two class-intervals, namely (i) one lakh copies and above and (ii) 50,001 to one lakh copies. Eightyone came in the first and 96 in the second group.

3.7.4. Similarly, the small newspapers have also been analysed into three sub-groups : (a) 5,001 to 15,000 copies, (b) 2,001 to 5,000 copies and (c) upto 2,000 copies. Of the small newspapers, 1,080

belonged to sub-group (a), 1,338 to sub-group (b) and 4,107 to sub-group (c). The analysis of the pattern of circulation presents an interesting picture of the Indian Press—that the larger section of the newspapers have smaller circulation,

3.7.5. It may be recalled that out of 19,144 newspapers, only 7,056 (36.8 per cent) furnished their circulation figures for 1981. In other words a significant section of the newspapers do not inform about their circulation claim. While the number of such newspapers among big and medium newspapers is almost negligible, it is the smaller newspapers who are not aware of their obligation under the Press of Registration of Books Act to submit Annual Statement. Thus, the exact circulation of the small newspapers could not be ascertained, which could be much more than what this report has been able to project.

3.7.6. Of the 777 dailies and tri/bi-weekly newspapers that made available their circulation figures 6 were big, 125 medium and 586 small. Among the big dailies, 32 had a circulation of more than one lakh. In the category of small newspapers, 273 dailies and tri/bi-weeklies had a circulation of 5,001 to 15,000 copies, 152 between 2,001 to 5,000 copies and the remaining (161) upto 2,000 copies. The share of the big, medium and small dailies and tri/bi-weeklies in the total circulation of the daily press was 53.5, 21.7 and 24.8 per cent respectively (Table 3.5).

Average Circulation

3.8.1. The increasing trend in circulation was reflected in the average circulation also. The overall average circulation of the Indian newspapers increased to 7,200 copies in 1981 from 6,000 copies in 1980.

3.8.2. Categorywise, while the average circulation of medium and small newspapers showed an increase, there was a decline in the case of big newspapers. The average circulation of medium newspapers rose by 1,600 copies and became 27,400 copies in 1981 as compared to 25,800 copies in 1980. The small newspapers averaged 3,001 copies in 1981 as against 2,400 copies in 1980. In the case of big newspapers, the average circulation decreased to 120,300 copies from 121,400 in 1980 (Table 3.6).

Comparative Growth

3.9.1. There were 4,872 newspapers which were in existence in 1980 also, made available their circulation data for 1980 and 1981. Terms as 'common papers', their total circulation decreased marginally.

3.9.2. Among the common newspapers, dailies, tri-bi-weeklies, weeklies and monthlies, improved their circulation. Fortnightlies, quarterlies and annuals in the category of common newspaper lost in circulation (Table 3.7).

3.9.3. Language-wise, common papers published in Hindi, English, Kannada, Malayalam, Punjabi, Tamil and Telugu increased (Table 3.8).

Centrewise Circulation

Out of a total of circulation of 51,102,000 copies, 23,439,000 copies were in respect of the newspapers published from the four metropolitan cities. In other words, Bombay, Calcutta, Delhi and Madras accounted for 45.9 per cent copies circulated per publishing day in 1980. The other state capitals contributed 7,334,000 copies or 14.4 per cent. Newspapers brought out from the other bigger cities claimed a circulation of 13,705,000 copies i.e. 26.8 per cent. Details are shown in Table 3.11.

In respect of dailies, the share of the metropolitan newspapers was not so high as was in the total circulation. Nevertheless, the metropolitan dailies had a significant share of 5,293,000 copies or 34.4 per cent. The dailies belonging to state capital other than metropolitan cities was 2,885,000 copies or 18.7 per cent. Dailies from the other big cities accounted for 5,528,000 copies or 35.9 per cent.

Circulation Level

Published from Calcutta, Ananda Bazar Patrika in Bengali with a circulation of 416,514 copies retained the place of pride as the largest circulated single edition daily in 1981. Jugantar, also in Bengali from Calcutta came second with a circulation of 314,018 copies.

Times of India, published from Bombay, Delhi and Ahmedabad in English claimed the first position among multi-edition dailies with a circulation of 522,900 copies.

Among periodicals, Malayala Manorama, a Malayalam weekly from Kottayam had the largest circulation with 565,591 copies. Kumudam, a Tamil weekly from Madras was a closed second with 560,646 copies.

CHAPTER IV

PERFORMANCE OF PRESS REGISTRAR'S OFFICE IN 1981

4.1.1. The office of the Registrar of Newspapers for India, commonly known as Press Registrar came into being on July 1, 1956. It was created as a result of the recommendations of the First Press Commission. That Commission recommended for a statutory authority responsible for the collection of reliable statistics about press in the country. Accepting the recommendation, the Central Government amended the Press and Registration of Books Act and the office of the Press Registration of Books Act and the office of the Press Registrar came into existence.

4.1.2. The duties and functions of the Press Registrar are defined in the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1967. Apart from these duties, some additional responsibilities have been assigned to him over a period of time.

Statutory Functions

- (i) To compile and maintain a register of newspapers containing particulars about the newspapers published in the country.
- (ii) To issue Certificates of Registration to the newspapers.
- (iii) To inform the Magistrate about the availability of titles for proposed newspapers.
- (iv) To ensure that the newspapers are published in accordance with the provisions of the Press and Registration of Books Act and to watch their regularity,
- (v) To study the annual statements filed by the publishers of newspapers containing information about their circulation, ownership etc.
- (vi) To check the circulation claims of newspapers.
- (vii) To submit to the Government on or before 30th September each year, a report containing information and statistics about the Press in India for the previous year, with a particular reference to the trends in circulation and in the direction of common ownership units.

Other Functions :

- (i) Formulation of Newsprint Allocation Policy and allocation of newsprint to newspapers.
- (ii) Assessing and certifying the essential needs and requirements of newspaper establishments in regard to printing and composing machinery.

Verification of Titles

4.2.1. A publisher interested in bringing out a newspaper is required to file a declaration in the prescribed form set out in the Registration of Newspaper (Central) Rules, before the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate under whose jurisdiction the place of publication is situated. In the declaration, the publisher has to mention the title, language, periodicity and other pertinent particulars of the proposed newspaper. Before authenticating the declaration, the Magistrate has to make an inquiry from the Press Registrar to certify whether the title of the proposed newspaper is not the same or similar to any existing newspaper published either in the same language or in the same State.

4.2.2. On receiving a reference from the concerned Magistrate, the proposed title is checked against a catalogue of titles of existing newspapers maintained in the office of the Press Registrar. In case the title is available the same is recommended to the Magistrate. In the event of non-availability, the Magistrate is advised to ask the publisher to suggest alternative titles routed through him.

4.2.3. During 1981, as many as 15,217 references were received from various Magistrates for verification of titles. Of them, titles were found available in 7,946 cases and were cleared for authentication of the declarations. In the remaining 7,271 cases, the concerned Magistrates were advised to ask the intending publishers to suggest alternative titles as newspapers under the same or similar titles were already in publication either in the same language or in the same State.

4.2.4. The number of declarations received during 1981 was 9,367. Of them, 5,273 were in respect of new newspapers and the remaining 4,094 pertained to the existing newspapers.

Certificate of Registration

4.3.1. On receiving from the Magistrate an attested copy of the declaration in respect of a newspaper and a copy of that newspaper published within the stipulated period, the Press Registrar's office records relevant particulars about the newspapers. Simultaneously, a certificate of registration is issued to the publisher indicating the registration number allotted to the newspaper.

4.3.2. During the year 1981, the total number of newspapers registered were 1,072.

Annual Statements

4.4.1. Every publisher of a newspaper is required to submit to the Press Registrar an Annual Statement in respect of the newspaper published by him in form II prescribed in the Registration of Newspaper (Central) Rules, 1956 on or before the last day of February each year in respect of the previous year.

4.4.2. In addition, every publisher has to publish in the issue after the last day of February every year, a Statement about the ownership and other particulars in Form IV prescribed under the Rules.

4.4.3. Failure to supply information in Form II is punishable with a fine up to Rs. 500 in each case.

4.4.4. The annual statement is of considerable importance in the context of the study about the Press in India as the Press Registrar has mainly to depend on the statement furnished by the publisher as the source of information, though the declaration provides some basic information.

4.4.5. Experience has shown that a significant number of publishers fail to comply with the obligation of sending annual statement to the Press Registrar, in spite of his supplying the Annual Statement forms, even though it is not necessary for him to do so under the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867. Publishers are required not only to send their Annual Statements every year but do so by the due date to enable the Press Registrar to give a full picture of the Press in the country and of the developments during a particular year. As is evident from the notice taken of the earlier Reports, there is considerable interest in the analysis of the various data given in these Reports. But this analysis can be much more comprehensive and useful if publishers extend their full cooperation to the Press Registrar in furnishing the required statistics in time.

4.4.6. Out of the total number of general as well as miscellaneous publications 21,989 newspaper on record in 1981, Annual Statements were received from 8,611 (39.2 per cent) by 28.2.1982, the last date for the receipt of the statements. Notices were issued to defaulters and 3,115 more statements were received bringing the total to 11,726 (53.3 per cent).

Verification of Circulation claims

4.5.1 In the annual statement, the publisher has to submit a statement about circulation giving separately (a) the average number of copies printed per publishing day, (b) the average number of copies sold and the average number of copies distributed free, including complimentary, voucher, exchange, bonus, sample and office copies. In respect of newspapers where the average number of printed copies exceeds 2,000 the statement of the publisher has to be countersigned by a chartered accountant or a qualified auditor. Small newspapers with a circulation upto 2,000 are exempted from furnishing a chartered accountant's certificate of their circulation. Similar exemption has also been given to publications issued by educational institutions, charitable societies or associations which publish newspapers generally for the use of their members and not for sale.

4.5.2. Under the Rules, the Press Registrar has the authority to verify the statements furnished to him by a publisher. Such checks of circulation claims were started in 1960 on an experimental basis and were confined to big cities and publication centres. With the passage of time, the checks increased and now they extend to smaller publication centre and remote areas.

4.5.3. During 1981, the total number of newspapers taken up for check was 590 spread over to 40 centres of publications in various States and Union Territories. Besides, cases of 226 newspapers, pending at the end of 1980 were finalised in 1981.

Newsprint

4.6.1. Newspapers and periodicals are entitled to get newsprint on application as required under the Import Policy and the Newsprint Allocation Policy announced for each financial year i.e. April to March, commonly known as the licensing year. The Department of Commerce is responsible for the Import Policy, which the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting declares the Newsprint Allocation Policy.

4.6.2. After the announcement of the Newsprint Allocation Policy, newspapers submit their applications in the prescribed form to the Press Registrar. These applications are scrutinised and examined with reference to the requirements of the Policy. Where documents are incomplete or not furnished, the applicants are asked to supply and make the documents complete. Where found necessary clarifications on the consumption of newsprint allotted for the previous year are sought. An application, complete in all respects is then processed for determining the applicant newspaper's entitlement of newsprint in terms of the policy. Excess allocation or short consumption of quota allotted in the previous year is adjusted and the net quantity of newsprint due to the newspaper is issued through the State Trading Corporation of India Ltd. in the case of imported newsprint.

Authorisation for the release of indigenous variety of newsprint is issued by the Press Registrar's office.

4.6.3. The allocation of newsprint is also regulated by the Newsprint Control Order, 1962 issued under the Essential Commodities Act., During 1981-82, the total number of applications received for allocation of newsprint were 1861. Of these, 1753 newspapers were allotted newsprint totalling 3,71,618.56 tonnes. The remaining applications were either incomplete or received after the expiry of the licensing year

Printing Machinery

4.6.4. Newspapers establishments have to apply to the Press Registrar in the forms prescribed by the Department of Commerce, for their requirements of imported printing machinery. The Press Registrar's Office examines the applications and if found in order, forwards it, with a certificate of essentiality to the Chief Controller of Imports and Exports for further action. Twentyfive applications were received in 1981 against which essentiality certificates were issued for import of printing, composing and allied machinery valued at Rs. 10,111,485 in favour of 13 newspaper establishments. Seven applications each were either rejected or withdrawn. The remaining 5 applications were pending at the end of 1981-82.

4-6.5. In addition, essentiality certificates valued at Rs. 3,159,670 were issued in favour of 3 newspaper establishments during 1981, against applications carried over from 1980

CHAPTER V

OWNERSHIP OF NEWSPAPERS

5.1.1. As in previous years, majority of newspapers published in the country in 1981, were owned by Individuals. Out of 19144 newspapers, as many as, 12521 were owned by Individuals'. Next came Societies and Associations with 3240 newspapers. Firm and Partnership owned 956 and Joint Stock Companies 182 newspapers. There were 597 Government publications. Ownership pattern of the newspapers published in 1981 is shown in Table 5.1

5.1.2. Among dailies, 840 belonged to 'Individuals', followed by 'Joint Stock Companies' and 'Firms and Partnership' with 180 and 125 newspapers respectively.

5.1.2. The largest number of periodical in the categories of weeklies, fortnightlyes, monthlies and Annals also belonged to 'Individuals'. In the category of quarterlies, 'Societies and Associations, claimed the largest number. Details are shown in Tabels 5.3 and 5.12.

5.1.4. As in the previous years, the largest number of newspapers in all the principal languages, excepting Sanskrit and Kashmiri, were owned by 'Individuals'. Societies and Associations published the largest number of Sanskrit newspapers. The only newspaper published in Kashmiri was owned by the Government of Jammu and Kashmir. Details are shown in Table 5.13.

5.1.5. Statistical data about the newspapers belonging to different forms of ownership in different States and Union territories is given in Table 5.14. It also shows the dominance of individuals in almost all the States and Union Territories.

Circulation

5.2.1. With a share of 38.4 per cent in the total circulation, the newspapers brought out by Joint Stock Companies came first. The newspapers belonging to individuals claimed the second position (Table 5.2).

Common Ownership Units

5.3.1. A newspaper establishment owning two or more news-interest newspapers, including at least one daily, is termed as a common ownership unit. There were 83 such units in 1981 as agrinst 82 in 1980. Of them, 33 were Joint Stock Companies, 20 'Individuals', 18 'Firm and Partnership' and seven 'Trusts'. Out of 299 news-interest newspapers, 247 dailies and 41 periodicals belonging to these common ownership units, 152 were brought out by the Joint Stock Companies, 50 by Individuals, 48 by 'Firm and Partnership' and 32 by 'Trusts' (Table 5.4).

5.3.2. Apart from news-interest newspapers the common ownership units brought out 61 specialised journals also. Statistical data about the number of newspapers pertaining to common ownership units are given in Tables 5.5 and 5.6.

5.3.3. The newspapers brought out by the common ownership units had a share of 29.5 percent in the total circulation of the Indian Press. The dailies belonging to such units claimed a circulation of 10,019,000 copies, which was 65.7 per cent of the total circulation of the daily Press. (Table 5.8).

5.3.4. Out of a total circulation 11,334,000 copies in respect of news-interest newspapers belonging to common ownership units, Joint Stock Companies accounted for 9,115,000 copies or 80.4 per cent. This, the newspapers owned by the Joint Stock Companies dominated the common ownership units in circulation

5.3.5. Language-wise, the percentage share of big and medium dailies owned by the common ownership units in the total circulation of daily press in each language was :-English : 82.1, Hindi : 52.4, Marathi : 51.5, Tamil : 60.9, Telugu : 78.8, Kannada : 67.3, Malayalam 69.0, Bengali : 69.0, Oriya : 47.2, Punjabi : 27.3, Gujarati : 72.5, Urdu : 14.6 and Assamese 96.9. This shows that by and large the daily press was controlled by common ownership units.

Big Units and News-interest Newspapers

5.4.1. News-interest newspapers belonging to 40 common ownership units claimed a total circulation of more than one lakh copies. Such units are termed as 'Big units'. In 1980, the number of 'Big Units' was 31.

5.4.2. The Big units owned 166 news-interest newspapers, including 160 dailies. These newspapers had a circulation of 10,419,000 copies, which was 68.3 per cent of the total circulation of Indian Press.

5.4.3. Bennett. Coleman & Co. with 15 news-interest publications claimed the highest circulation with 1,858,000 copies. Express group of newspapers and 1,155,000 copies came next,

Big common ownership and Metropolitan Dailies

5.5.1. Nine of the 40 big common ownership units, published 33 dailies from Metropolitan cities. These dailies had a total circulation of 3,805,000 copies. With respect to the total circulation of the metropolitan dailies, the share of the dailies belonging to these nine group was of the order of 74.0 per cent.

5.5.2. Bennett Coleman & Co. alone accounted for 1,215,000 copies. Express newspapers also had a significant share with 584,000 copies. Details are shown in Table 5.10 A & 5.10 B.

CHAPTER VI

DAILY NEWSPAPERS

6.1.1. There were 1,264 daily newspapers published in India in 1981, as against 1,173 in 1980 an increase of 7.8 per cent. Of these, 722 dailies supplied their circulation figures for 1981, which accounted for 15,255,000 copies. As compared to 14,531,000 copies in 1980, the circulation of the daily press has increased by 5.0 per cent.

6.1.2. Akin to dailies in the dissemination and collection of news, tri/bi-weeklies have been generally clubbed together with dailies. Wherever a deviation occurs, it has been so indicated.

6.1.3. The number of tri/bi-weeklies in 1981 increased to 98 from 93 in 1980. Circulation of the newspapers published twice or thrice a week was 142,000 copies in 1981, as compared to 246,000 copies in the previous year.

6.1.4. The growth of the daily press during 1971-1981 is shown in Table 6.1 and 6.2.

Languages

6.2.1. Dailies were published in all the principal languages excepting Kashmiri. The largest number of dailies were published in Hindi (409), followed by those in Urdu (128), Marathi (120), English (105), and Malayalam (101). During 1981, Malayalam became the fifth language to have more than a hundred dailies. Apart from the principal languages, dailies were brought out in Chinese, Hmar, Lushai (Mizo), Manipuri, Paite Pau, Simte and Zokan.

6.2.2. Tri/bi-weeklies were brought out in twelve principal languages. Hindi (26) and Marathi (17) were the only two languages to have more than ten tri/bi-weeklies. One tri-weekly was published in Lushai (Mizo). Details are shown in Table 6.3.

6.2.3. In circulation also, Hindi dailies continued to dominate with 3,684,000 copies. English dailies 3,355,000 copies came second. More than ten million circulation was also claimed by the dailies in Marathi (1,399,000 copies) Malayalam (1,386,000 copies) Gujarati (1,145,000 copies) and Bengali (1,059,000 copies). As for tri/bi-weeklies, those appeared in Assamese and Hindi had a circulation of 41,000 copies and 32,000 copies respectively (Table 6.3).

Centres of Publication

6.3.1. Out of 1,264 daily newspapers, 209 were published from the four Metropolitan cities, 242 from the state capitals and 40 from union territories. Other big cities had 523 dailies. The remaining 250 belonged to smaller towns. As for tri/bi-weeklies, the metropolitan cities had 14 and the other state capitals 17. Forty tri/bi-weeklies were published from the other bigger cities other than metropolitan and state capitals. Twenty six pertained to smaller towns.

6.3.2. As regards circulation, the metropolitan dailies had a significant share of 34.4 per cent. Dailies from the state capitals (other than the metropolitan cities) accounted for 18.7 per cent. The share of the other big cities, excluding metropolitan cities and state capitals, was 35.9 per cent and the towns having a population below one lakh 8.8 per cent (Table 6.4).

6.3.3. The study of the metropolitan dailies brings to the forefront a significant point that their share in the total number of dailies in the country was only 16.5 per cent as compared to the share of 34.4 per cent in the total circulation of the daily press.

Circulation of Metropolitan Dailies

6.4.1. Fiftyseven dailies published from the four metropolitan cities claimed a circulation of 2,937,000 copies, which was 19.3 per cent of the total circulation commanded by the entire daily press in 1981. Languagewise, the share of the English dailies published from the metropolitan cities was 51.2 per cent in the total circulation of English dailies in the country and that of Hindi was 26.7 per cent (Table 6.5).

6.4.2. Based on the information made available by 57 dailies published from the metropolitan cities, the study about their distribution pattern revealed that 63.6 per cent of the total copies in circulation were distributed within the place of origin and 12.4 per cent were distributed among the readers within the states of publication excluding the places of publications. The remaining 24.0 per cent were distributed outside the states of publication. Details are shown in Table 6.6.

Highest Circulated Dailies

6.5.1. Thirtytwo dailies had a circulation of more than one lakh in 1981, same as in the previous year.

6.5.2. Of the 32 dailies with a circulation of more than one lakh, 11 were published in English, six each in Hindi and Malayalam, three in Gujarati and two each in Marathi and Bengali and one each in Kannada and Tamil. Complete list of these newspapers is as follows :—

Government Publications

7.8.1. There were 597 Government publications, including three dailies, in 1981 as against 584 in 1980. Of these, 319 belonged to Central Government and 279 to different State Governments.

7.8.2. Of the three dailies two were published by the Administration of Andaman and Nicobar and one the Government of West Bengal. Among non-dailies 247 were monthlies, 174 quarterlies, 60 fortnightlies, 46 weeklies and 10 annuals (Table 7.11).

7.8.3. Language-wise, largest number of Government publications appeared in English (230), followed by Hindi (122). Other languages had less than twenty publications. There were 76 bilinguals. Details are shown in Table 7.12.

Central Government Publications

7.9.1. Of the 319 Central Government publications, as many as 191 were issued from the Union Capital, Delhi, 33 from West Bengal, 22 from Uttar Pradesh, 19 from Maharashtra and 15 from Tamil Nadu. Other states and union territories had less than ten newspapers (7.13).

7.9.2. The Central Government brought out newspapers in all the principal language excepting Kashmiri, Sanskrit and Sindhi. More than fifty per cent of the central Government publications appeared in English (172). Hindi with 54 newspapers came second. Other languages had less than ten newspapers (Table 7.12).

State Government Publications

7.10.1. Excepting Sanskrit and Sindhi, State Government publications were brought out in all the principal languages of India. Out of 278 State Government publications, 68 were published in Hindi and 58 in English. There were 55 bilinguals (Table 7.10).

7.10.2. Chandigarh owned the largest number (32) of state Government publications, followed by Uttar Pradesh (27) and Maharashtra (23). Among publishers of newspapers, Nagaland and Goa, Daman and Diu did not have any State Government publications.

Contents

7.11.1. Information was available about the contents of 581 periodicals belonging to the Central and State Governments. More than one hundred (117) came under the category of 'News and Current Affairs'. There were 62 journals which dealt with 'Social Welfare' and 56 with 'Agriculture and Animal Husbandry'. Government publications were brought out in all the 21 categories, excepting 'Film' and 'Sports'.

7.11.2. The Government of Andhra Pradesh published the only journal belonging to 'Religion and Philosophy'. Government of Kerala and Maharashtra shared one magazine each pertaining to 'Insurance and Banking'. All the periodicals in the categories of 'Women', 'Art' and 'Radio and Music' were owned by the Central Government (Table 7.14).

Circulation

7.12.1. The Government publications claimed a total circulation of 1,297,000 copies in 1981, as compared to 1,313,000 copies in 1980, thereby showing a marginal decrease of 1.2 per cent. In the total circulation of the Indian Press, share of the Government publication was 2.5 per cent.

7.12.2 Out of circulation of 1,297,000 copies commanded by the Government publications, the share of Central Government publications, was 522,000 copies and that of State Governments 775,000 copies.

CHAPTER X

VERIFICATION OF CIRCULATION CLAIMS

10.1.1. Apart from the annual returns that RNI receives from the newspapers indicating their circulation, the Registrar of Newspapers for India carries out verification of circulation of newspapers by its own team officers. Such verification not only helps establishing authentic data, but also as spin-offs in several important directions. It helps to monitor consumption of newsprint, an essential commodity, and checks exaggerated claims of circulation by newspapers. The verified circulation serves as a basis for the DAVP to determine its advertisement rates. Another important area to which this is relevant is the accreditation of correspondents by the Press Information Bureau.

10.1.2. Keeping these important impacts in view, the Registrar of Newspapers for India has been covering newspapers not only in the metropolitan cities and State capitals, but also in smaller towns wherever they may be located. In 1981, the circulation teams of the RNI verified the circulation of 950 newspapers in 40 centres spread over several States and Union Territories. In addition, verification of circulation of 226 newspapers, which have been brought forward, was completed during the year.

10.1.3. Periodicity wise break-up of newspapers and periodicals whose circulation claims were checked in 1981, is as follows :

Periodicity	Number
Dailies	183
Weeklies	175
Fortnightlies	36
Monthlies	176
Others	20

10.1.4. After taking into account 226 cases, pending finalisation at the end of 1980, the total number of newspapers and periodicals taken up for verification of circulation claims in 1981 was 816. The break-up of these 816 newspapers and periodicals is given below :

(i) Newspaper and periodicals whose circulation claims were found to be generally in order	...327
(ii) Newspapers and periodicals whose circulation was assessed at a lower figure	...149
(iii) Newspapers and periodicals whose circulation claims were treated as 'Unestablished' as the publishers could not produce satisfactory records	...170
(iv) Newspapers and periodicals which were reported to have ceased publication or which could not be traced at the given address	...23
(v) Newspapers and periodicals whose circulation claims were under investigation at the end of 1981	...147

10.1.5. It is evident that the circulation claims could not be accepted in toto in many cases as the publishers failed to produce satisfactory documentary evidences in spite of the positive and sympathetic approach to circulation assessment. In fact, the circulation teams advise and guide the publishers, particularly those of small newspapers and periodicals about the proper maintenance of the minimum accounts and records so that they might be able to substantiate their circulation claims.

10.1.6. Lists of newspapers and periodicals which were taken up for check during 1981 are as following :—

CHAPTER XI

NEWSPRINT

11.1.1. The newsprint Allocation Policy for the year 1981-82 was announced on April 28, 1981. The policy contained almost all the features of the previous year's policy with some modifications from the point of view to liberalise it further. The policy provided for a graded growth rate :

Big :	5 per cent
Small & Medium :	7 per cent or actual growth attained during 1980-81, whichever is more.

It was also stipulated that the Newspapers with an entitlement of more than 400 tonnes should lift at least 15 per cent of their quota from Nepa Mills. Newspapers having an entitlement up to 400 tonnes were free to take any proportion of their newsprint entitlement either from imported or indigenous newsprint. To help to small and medium newspapers, State Trading Corporation of India (STC) imported newsprint in sheets also. Besides this, STC opened more inland godowns so that the newsprint was available to newspapers at the possible nearest point.

11.1.2. As for supply of newsprint during 1981-82, there was no difficulty in the procurement of newsprint from imported sources and distribution by STC on high Sea sales and buffer stock. The supply of indigenous newsprint was also maintained satisfactorily. However, Price of imported went up step by step because of the increase in price in the international market. The price of Nepa newsprint went up to Rs.4700 per tonne from July, 1981.

Allocations

11.2.1. During the year 1981-82, as many as 1,753 newspapers and periodicals were allotted a total quantity of 3,71,618 tonnes, which was 2,134 tonnes more than the total allocation made in 1980-81

11.2.1. The details of the allocation of newsprint for the year 1981-82 (i) State and periodicitywise (ii) State and rangeswise (iii) Periodicity and rangeswise (iv) Language and periodicitywise are given in Tables 11.1, 11.2, 11.3 and 11.4 respectively. The share of the dailies (508) was 3,00,231 tonnes in the total allotment. In other words, dailies shared 80.8 per cent of the total allocation of newsprint. Compared to 1980-81, the entitlement of dailies increased by 4,335 tonnes in 1981-82. Among the 508 dailies that received the newsprint, 37 had an entitlement of more than 2,000 tonnes. They were ;

CHAPTER XII

MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

12.1.1. A large section of publications in the country do not contain news or comments on public news, though they have a definite periodicity. In terms of the definition given in the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867, these publications can not be treated as 'Newspapers' and have therefore, been not included in the general study of the press given in other chapters of this report. A separate study of this non-included category publications have been made in this chapter. The Publications which fall under this category are :

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF INFORMATION & BROADCASTING

PUBLIC NOTICE NO. 1-PR-NP/81

NEW DELHI,
8 Vaisakha 1903 Saka
April 28, 1981.

In terms of para 7 of Appendix 9 of the Import Policy for 1981-82, Government of India in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting hereby notify the basis of newsprint entitlement to newspapers/Periodicals and other procedure relating to it as is annexed in the Annexure I, II, III, IV, V & VI, of this Public Notice and shall be applicable from April 1, 1981 to March 31, 1982. The price of imported newsprint in all varieties will be fixed separately for each quarter of the above licensing year and the same will be announced through State Trading Corporation of India, New Delhi.

(SURESH MATHUR)

Joint Secretary to the Government of India

Copy to :

All concerned.

(Issued from File
No. 33 (49)/81-PR)

ANNEXURE I

NEWSPRINT ALLOCATION POLICY 1981-82

1. Entitlement

1.1. All applications for allocation of newsprint must be made in form I (reproduced as Annexure VI to this policy) and supported by such documents as required under subsequent paragraphs of this policy. The applications should be addressed to the Registrar of Newspapers for India, New Delhi. No application for initial allocation of newsprint will be entertained after October 31, 1981, from a newspaper which was being published as on March 31, 1981.

1.2. The basic entitlement of newsprint of an individual newspaper/periodical in 1981-82 will be determined on the basis of the actual consumption of newsprint or white printing paper or both in the calendar year 1980, taking into account its average circulation, the average page area actually published, the number of publishing days etc. It will be based on the average number of pages published in 1979, except in the case of a daily newspaper which increased the number of its pages up to 8 per day in 1980. In such cases, the average number of pages in 1980 will be taken into account. The performance particulars required for working out the entitlement should be furnished in the form as in Annexure II, duly certified by a Chartered Accountant wherever the circulation exceeds 2,000 copies per publishing day.

1.3. Newspapers and periodicals may be allowed on application an initial increase over the basic entitlement as follows :—

(i) Newspapers and periodicals with circulation above 50,000 copies per publishing day.

5 per cent over the basic entitlement.

(ii) Newspapers/periodicals with circulation upto 50,000 copies per publishing day.

7 per cent over the basic entitlement, or the actual percentage in increase in circulation between 1979 and 1980, whichever is more.

1.4. Newspapers which have secured the basic entitlement of newsprint for 1981-82 can, if they so want, apply for upward revision on the basis of actual increase in circulation once. These applications must be accompanied by the performance particulars in annexure II to this policy and should reach the Registrar of newspapers not later than December 31, 1981. Except in the case of Newspapers with a circulation of 2,000 copies or less per publishing day, annexure II must be countersigned by a chartered Accountant in support of the claim. In the case of newspapers and periodicals whose entitlement of newsprint is 300 mts. or more, the application must be accompanied by an authenticated copy of the Income-tax return and the balance sheet for the year 1980-81.

1.5. The entitlement worked out in accordance with paras 1.2, 1.3 and 1.4 above may be revised/ varied in the light of such factors as the likely availability of newsprint, the need to maintain appropriate quantities in buffer stock and the general state of anticipated supplies. Cuts of a general nature may also be applied in the light of anticipation of shortfalls in supplies/production/stocks.

1.6. The Registrar of newspapers may call upon any newspaper/periodical to render account of the consumption for any period of not less than three months during the licensing year and he may reduce the entitlement of that newspaper/periodical accordingly, if the same is in excess of what would be admissible in the light of paras 1.2, 1.3 and 1.4 above.

1.7. In working out the initial entitlement in terms of para (1.2 and 1.3 above and in making revision in terms of para 1.4 above, abnormal short-term drops in circulation arising from special circumstances including strikes/lockouts or other reasons as also abnormal short-term increases in circulation attendant upon closure or disruption of work in competing newspapers at the same place of publication or any other extraordinary circumstances, may be ignored by the Registrar of Newspapers as may be considered appropriate by him in each case, reliance being placed upon normal average circulation, etc. In the case of newspapers which could not come out for abnormally long period the entitlement may be worked out after taking into account other relevant factors.

1.8. The entitlement of newspapers/periodicals for standard newsprint as also indigenous newsprint will be worked out on the basis of 51 grammes substance plus or minus 5 per cent.

1.9. When the entitlement is made for indigenous newsprint, it will be increased by 15 per cent.

2. New Dailies and Periodicals

2.1. A new newspaper/periodical will be allowed an initial quota which will be determined by the Registrar of Newspapers for India upon his satisfaction with regard to the projection of circulation by the applicant but not exceeding the requirement calculated on the basis of average circulation upto a maximum of 10,000 copies of 8 standard pages in the case of dailies and 16 standard pages in case of weeklies, triweeklies, bi-weeklies, fortnightlies and monthlies, per publishing day for the first four months. The application for the initial quota along with the completed proforma at Annexure III will be accompanied with a bond executed by the applicant and duly guaranteed by any scheduled bank for 20 per cent of the value of the newsprint to which he is entitled initially. This bond will be cancelled on the production of documentary evidence to the satisfaction of the Registrar of Newspapers for India to show that the newsprint has been utilised for the publication of the newspaper/periodical. After three months of regular publication, the new newspaper/periodical should produce evidence as per Annexure II to the satisfaction of the RNI about proper utilisation of the newsprint initially allocated to it, so that the entitlement for the year is made out on the basis of the actual performance.

2.2. Existing newspapers/periodicals which did not obtain newsprint in the year 1980-81 will be treated as new newspapers/periodicals, and their initial quota will be calculated on the basis given in para 2.1 above as the case may be from the month of receipt of their applications and further entitlements may be worked out subsequently in terms of para 2.1 above. Such application must be accompanied by the copy of the annual return for 1980 submitted to RNI.

3. Save in special cases, the following categories of newspapers and periodicals will not be entitled for allocation of newsprint, though they are classified as newspapers :

- (a) Journals published primarily to promote sale of goods or services;
- (b) House journals/magazines brought out by undertakings/firms/industrial concerns.
- (c) Price lists, catalogues and lottery news.
- (d) Publications intended for free distribution.
- (e) Fiction.
- (f) Racing guides.
- (g) School/College Magazines.
- (h) Newspapers/periodicals with a regularity of less than 50 per cent in a year.

4. In the case of newspapers/periodicals, the circulation of which has been assessed by the RNI to be lower than the claimed circulation for the calendar year 1978, 1979 or 1980, the entitlement for 1981-82 of such periodicals/ newspapers will be calculated on the basis of assessed circulation and the newsprint entitlement adjusted accordingly. These newspapers/periodicals will not be eligible for benefit under para 1.4 above until their circulation is reassessed.

4.1. Newspapers the circulation of which is declared as unestablished in 1978, 1979 or 1980 will be treated as new newspapers and governed by para 2,1 above for allocation of newsprint.

5. Allocation

5.1. Allotment of all types of newsprint--standard, roto and glazed--will generally be made in reels. Newspapers printed on sheet-fed machines will, however, receive their entitlement only in sheets. In case sheets are not available, the entitlement will be raised by 5% for conversion of reels into sheets on giving proof that printing is actually carried out only in sheets.

5.2. Newspapers/periodicals will not be permitted to adjust between them the quota allotted to each of them even when the publication are under the same ownership and/or bear the same title/name and even though they may have been allowed to club together the entitlement of each unit for administrative convenience in lifting of newsprint from STS and/or indigenous sources.

5.3. The authorised quota of newsprint allotted under the policy to a newspaper/ periodical may, however be used for a new edition of the same newspaper/periodical and the newsprint so used shall be accounted for separately. However the newspapers/periodicals will give intimation as per Annexure IV to the RNI at least one month prior to the start of the new edition, in respect of the circulation, projected page area, average number of pages, etc. of the new edition and likely diversion of newsprint from the parent edition. The entitlement of the parent newspaper may be reassessed accordingly. However, this entitlement may be revised and a fresh entitlement fixed for the new edition, after three months of publication on the basis of the actual variation in circulation.

NOTE : For the above purpose, an 'edition' is a newspaper/periodical which, irrespective of the place of publication; bears the same name/title, is in the same language and has the periodicity as the newspaper/periodical already being published by the same ownership/management, and is a reprint/separate run of the newspaper/periodical with variations dictated by the time factor and to meet requirements of existing local readership and speedier distribution.

6. Glazed, Indigenous and other Varieties

6.1. Periodicals which have been in regular publication for more than three months, may be allowed to claim their full entitlement or a portion of it in glazed or rotogravure newsprint subject to availability.

6.2. The basis of allocation of indigenous and imported newsprint will be as follows :

- (i) Newspapers with an entitlement of upto 400 mts. will have the option to lift any proportion of their requirements from indigenous or imported newsprint - both from high sea sales as well as from buffer stock.
- (ii) Newspapers with entitlement of 400 mts. or more will have to lift at least 15 per cent of their entitlement from indigenous newsprint. Such newspapers will also have to place orders for at least 75 per cent of their entitlement of imported newsprint from high sea sales.
- (iii) If shipment is not effected within 120 days of receipt of L/C's by STC, efforts will be made to allot proportionate tonnage from incoming buffer stock shipments on high sea sales basis which will be later replenished.

6.3. The Registrar of Newspapers may also vary the proportion of indigenous and imported newsprint in the light of availability of stocks from time to time. Newspapers/periodicals will have to take indigenous newsprint in sizes that are made available.

6.4. If any newspaper/ periodical had not utilised any quantity allotted in 1980-81 or in previous years, the unutilised quantity will be adjusted against its entitlement for 1981-82.

6.5. Newspapers which may suspend or cease publication shall return the newsprint not utilised.

7. Wastage

7.1. A uniform 7 per cent extra newsprint will be allowed in all cases on entitlement to compensate damage caused to the newsprint in transit and in the Press. In case of periodicals using multi. coloured printing, extra compensation of 2 per cent will be allowed over the normal wastage.

8. Miscellaneous

8.1. The work relating to distribution of imported newsprint will be handled entirely by the State Trading Corporation. The Registrar of Newspapers for India will give complete entitlement duly worked out of all the newspaper applicants to STS, which in turn will give imported newsprint either from high sea sales or from buffer in such ratio as may be prescribed from time to time according to the basis laid down in para 6.2 (ii) above.

8.2. Authorisations for the indigenous portion of the newsprint entitlement will be issued direct by the Registrar of newspapers for India to the Mills concerned.

8.3. Newspapers which do not comply with the provisions of the Newsprint Allocation Policy or Newsprint Control order or both, will not be allowed newsprint quota until they comply with the provisions. Newsprint dealers/ agents will not be allowed to act as authorised agents for delivery on high sea sales and buffer if they do not comply with the provisions of the Newsprint control order.

8.4. Those newspapers which do not lift their allotments from high sea sales or buffer stock or from indigenous within a period of two months of the receipt of the allocation order, will be liable to lose further authorisation both for imported newsprint and indigenous newsprint. However, those with an entitlement of less than 50 mts. may be allowed to lift their allotments within six months.

8.5. Newspapers/periodicals which are given allotment on high sea sales, will be allowed to take delivery also through the State Small Industries Development Corporations (or any other such Corporation functioning in the State) or through their authorised agents. Delivery on high sea sales basis will be subject to the minimum quantity booked by the foreign supplier small newspapers which do not fulfil this condition of high sea sales allocations because their entitlement is too small to be covered by that arrangement, can also club their entitlement with other small newspapers and get the newsprint from high sea sales through either the State Small Industries Development Corporation (or any other such Corporation functioning in the State) or through their authorised agents acting on their behalf.

8.6. Since Indian mills are not in a position to despatch consignment of less than one wagon load, allottees of smaller quantities will have to make their own arrangements for transport of such newsprint allotted to them.

8.7. The number of copies distributed free, unsold returns or any other copies printed but neither sold nor distributed free will be taken into Consideration for purpose of determining the entitlement/ consumption of newsprint, provided that these represent a reasonable percentage of their print order and in any case not exceeding the following limits :—

Circulation	Dailies tri-& bi-weeklies	Weeklies fortnightlies	Others
Upto 2,500	10%	20%	25%
Between 2,500 and 5,000	10%	15%	20%
Between 5,000 and 10,000	10%	10%	15%
Above 1,0000	5%	5%	10%

8.8. Newsprint obtained in 1980-81 under the scheme for Export Promotion etc. will also be taken into account for determining quantity utilised/held in stock by the newspapers in 1980-81. For this purpose, information should be furnished in Annexure V to this Public Notice.

9.1. In cases where an application may not be formally complete or does not comply with any or all of the requirements above, the Registrar of Newspapers for India may waive the procedural requirements including relaxation of last dates for receipt of applications for good and valid reasons. The Registrar of Newspapers for India may also relax any of the conditions of the Policy for good and valid reasons.

9.2. Newsprint may be authorised by the Registrar of Newspapers for India for specialised purposes other than the requirements for the production of newspapers/periodicals where such purpose may be related to the newspaper industry such as experimental use in printing machinery manufacture or any other cognate or germane purposes. For this purpose, a quantity of 5,000 mts. will be at the disposal of the Registrar of Newspapers for India.
